Private Lessons

Applied music lessons are available for all ages and levels of ability in piano, voice, brass, strings, woodwinds, music theory & composition. Students may request a student instructor, affiliate instructor, or an Emmanuel College faculty member. Private instruction is based on instructor availability.

Kids and Adult Beginner Guitar

Semi-private lessons and group classes are available for both kids (ages 7-12) and adults (age 13 & up). Students will learn the basics of playing the guitar, including chord symbols, melody, rhythm, technique, accompaniment, solo and group playing. Students must supply their own guitar.

For Ages newborn-7 years. Our certified Kindermusik instructor, Louise Gast, offers three classes for our children: Our Time, Family Time and Imagine That! Children will sing, dance and learn in an integrated way that is fun for all ages. They develop important listening and social skills, explore playing various instruments through fun musical activities and games. Class offerings may vary each semester.

Drama I

For Ages 13-adult. Students will learn the basics of acting and audition techniques while preparing and delivering dramatic monologues and short scenes. This class is offered fall semester only.

Musical Theatre

For Ages 6-16. This exciting performance class is designed to develop skills for the singing-actor. The course will cover the basics in theatrical singing, voice projection, dramatic presentation, stage etiquette, dance movement and audition techniques. Students will perform in the Academy Student recital as well as several other EC and community events.

Sacred Dance Jr.

For Ages 5-10. Students will learn choreographed basic ballet and modern dance movement to contemporary praise and worship music. Additional stretching/flexibility and self-esteem exercises are incorporated as students develop personal through developing their natural rhythm and expressing emotions. They perform at the conclusion of the semester for the student recital and may elect to perform in area churches.

Sacred Dance

For Ages 13-adult. This class is designed for those interested in learning how to develop interpretive dance skills for use in personal and corporate worship (Psalm 149:3). This class will consist of stretching/flexibility exercises, basic ballet and modern dance movement, and improvisatory dance. No prior dance experience necessary.

Kids Art Exploration

For K-5th graders. This class will cover the art elements and consists of different art mediums. It will involve drawing, a combination of mixed-mediums as well as color pencils and watercolors. Basic art materials required are: pencils, erasers, sketchbook, small portfolio, and a few additional materials.

Drawing

For adults. Enjoy the therapy of art and the fellowship of other artists! This class may be taken as a beginner drawing course or by the advanced artist who wants to review basic principles or improve his or her skills. Formal elements of line, value, shape, texture and space are worked individually and in common.

Pottery- New for Fall 2011!
