Emmanuel College was founded in 1919 by Reverend George Floyd Taylor, under the name Franklin Springs Institute.

The name of the institution was changed to Emmanuel College in 1939 under President Thomas Aaron who moved the campus to its current location.

In 1967, under the administration of President Woodrow Glenn Drum, the College received accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges as a junior college.

Dr. Culbreth Melton became the sixth President of Emmanuel College in 1970 and under his administration, a four-year School of Christian Ministries was established and accredited.

Under the administration of Dr. David Hopkins, Emmanuel College became an accredited four-year institution in 1991 by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

In 2005, Dr. Michael Stewart became the eighth President and under his administration, significant efforts were made through expanding academic and athletic programs and improving facilities and overall campus life.

Dr. Ron White currently serves as the ninth president of Emmanuel College. Under his administration, the College has experienced its largest enrollments in history.
Emmanuel College is a Christ-centered liberal arts institution that strives to PREPARE STUDENTS to become CHRIST-LIKE DISCIPLES who integrate faith, learning and living for effective careers, scholarship and service.

INCOMING FRESHMEN

As enrollment has increased over the last few years academic standards have been maintained.

The average SAT score for incoming freshmen has remained consistent or trended upward with increased enrollment.

As enrollment has increased at EC, our class sizes have remained small, a statistic we are proud of. At Emmanuel, you will be known by your name, not a number.

With close to 45% of classes at Emmanuel topping off at 10 students or less, it is safe to say that at EC students are given the individualized attention needed to help them succeed.

ACCREDITATION

Emmanuel College is accredited by The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award the associate and baccalaureate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; Telephone number 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Emmanuel College. Website: www.sacscoc.org.
Graduation Rates at Emmanuel have varied over the past decade, however, there are many students that get an excellent start on their academic career at Emmanuel College and then transfer to other schools to finish their degree programs. Likewise, a number of students transfer to Emmanuel College and find it a great place to finish up their degree. In fact, nearly 40% of the Emmanuel College’s 332 graduates from 2013-2015 transferred to Emmanuel College to finish their degrees.
